

AISK Programme of Inquiry Matrix 2017-18

	Who We Are	Where We Are in Place and Time	How We Express Ourselves	How the World Works	How We Organise Ourselves	Sharing the Planet
G5	Self-identity evolves over time due to internal and external factors. 1	Migration transforms individuals and communities. 2	Personal passions drive creative expression of the arts. 4	Reaction or change in matter occurs when substances interact. 3	Government structure organizes nations. 6	EXHIBITION: UN Sustainable Development Goals 5
G4	Stereotyping or prejudging can create misconceptions and conflict. 1	Explorations over time broaden the understanding of our world today. 6	Expressive performances rely on imagination, interpretation and collaborative efforts. 4	Earth's natural transformations causes change in a landscape and adaptation of living things. 2	Decisions on energy systems can lead to a sustainable future. 5	Human choices and actions challenge the health of our natural world. 3
G3	Understanding how the body works contributes to making informed choices on our personal well-being. 2	Civilizations of the past have led to the understanding of the world today. 5	Media advertising influences global change. 1	Earth's weather and climate, makes it a habitable planet in our solar system. 6	Machines have innovated how we live and how communities function. 3	Children worldwide have rights and responsibilities. 4
G2	Equality, fairness and respect for rules strengthens citizenship and builds unity in societies. 1	Personal histories evolve with time. 2	Art reflects an expression of personal identity and artistic talent. 4	Materials are used and recycled for different purposes according to their properties. 5	Supply and demand of goods and services caters to human consumption. 6	Earth's waters need to be conserved through global efforts. 3
G1	Culture expresses identity and traditions around the world. 1	Human settlements are shaped by geographical accessibility and trade routes. 5	People communicate imagination and creativity in a variety of ways. 4	Light and sound travels and behaves in scientific ways. 2		Animals' basic needs are met through a healthy environment. 3
KG2	People depend on each other to create a peaceful community. 1		Stories engage our imagination to communicate meaning. (All year unit) 3	Plant organisms need natural resources to survive on the planet. 3	Consumer products go through change to be used, produced or sold. 5	Conservation protects the environment. 4
KG1	Human relationships affect the well-being of people. 1		Ideas and feelings can be provoked and expressed through the arts. 3	People experience the world through sensory exploration. 4		Living things depend on each other to survive. 2
Pre-K	Learning about ourselves and others nurtures identity and a sense of belonging.		People discover and express creativity with their imagination. 4	Movement of objects happen with application of force. 2		Human behavior impacts living things. 3